RSA

JOIN US

You'll know the RSA as a club originally started by diggers as a place to gather for companionship and to remember their mates. Although the lessons learned and awareness remain, the wars in which they fought are passing into history. Many of those who served have now left us.

So, not surprisingly, in recent years the profile of our membership has changed and the RSA has now become a meeting place for all people in the community. These clubs are great well established facilities, ready and available for your enjoyment. Come in for a meal, a social drink or meet with your friends.

Our club, the Russell RSA, was started just after WWII and currently has 400 members, leaving a whole lot of room and opportunity for others to come share with us and have some fun.

On behalf of all at the Russell RSA we'd like to invite you to join us.

To make that happen, please fill in the application overleaf and return it to us soon to become a club member.

It will be our pleasure to welcome you.
